PETITIONING THE COURT

- ☐ To issue a warrant
☒ To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number    Nature of Noncompliance

- 1                    The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.'

On July 15, 2007, the offender was arrested by the Clifton Police Department and charged with Aggravated Assault and Fictitious Reports. The charges went before the Grand Jury in Passaic County and were not billed. The case has been returned to Clifton Municipal Court and is scheduled for trial on May 19, 2008.

- 2                    The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'The offender shall make restitution in the amount of $194,094.31'

The offender was ordered pay restitution in monthly installments of no less than $100 per month. The offender has paid a total of $2,470 in restitution payments. In the past year, he has only submitted $470.

3

The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'The defendant is prohibited from incurring any new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer, unless the defendant is in compliance with a payment schedule for any restitution obligation. The defendant shall not encumber or liquidate interest in any assets unless it is in direct service of the restitution obligation or otherwise has the express approval of the Court.'

The offender has opened three credit card accounts and accrued more than $8,500 in combined credit card balances since his release from custody in May 2005, despite not being in compliance his payment agreement as set by the Court.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
